ANDREW F. DOERMANN

The Home of the Ball Dahlia

North Trevor Avenue

Cheviot, (Cincinnati - 11) Ohio

Greetings, Fellow Dahlia Fan:

The past season was very peculiar. First it was very wet so that dahlias were planted late. Then we had a prolonged drought, though we did have some intermittent showers that moistened the ground enough to do cultivating but no real watering. Those who had methods to water had a fine season, as we were free of storms, but even then dahlias didn't do so well. This was shown at the early shows. Perhaps this peculiar weather had its effect upon the seedlings, as I saw nothing worth mentioning till very late in the season when I saw what might be called an Informal Greater Glory. Mr. Carlisle of Amelia, Ohio, had this on display. I think this one will bear watching.

Cincinnati has gone Australian and we did get a few nice ones out of the ones we got from "down under." I have included a few of these in my "Win With These" list. In addition I liked Dauntless, Halifax, Mustang, Rhapsody, Kelvin, Sydney, Joan Griffiths and Mary Noble. Lady's Fancy is one of the prettiest miniatures I ever saw.

I haven't anything new for this year, but there is an amber collarette that I have called Amberette and a dwarf red anemone that look good. They will be in our trial grounds this year; watch for them. These two and Polar Queen that I told you about last year I hope to release next year.

I am sorry that I am late this year in getting this price list to you, but the delay was caused by me taking over the management of the greenhouses at the University of Cincinnati. This gives me an opportunity for doing some of the experiments I had hoped to do but did not have the facilities with which to do them, but it also cuts down on the time I have for dahlias. So if in the future I shall be a little late in answering a letter or getting out an order it is because I have been "burnt by too many irons."

Anyway, I promise to grow the best dahlias I can locate and ship to you only the kind of roots that I would care to receive myself.

Yours for better dahlias,

ANDREW DOERMANN.

My Last Year's Introduction

TARAWA—(Goetzger)

A large purplish wine red semi-cactus with silver reverse. The bushes are a bit dwarf, but the stems are long and carry the blooms well above the stock. Sometimes the small petaloids cause a few of the flowers to have deformed centers, but when it comes good, it is GOOD. It has won its share of ribbons at our shows this past season. A Certificate of Merit and Honor Roll dahlia for 1945.
